From your Pastor's Desk

Fr. Mike Eckley

Since my time in college, I've been a Minnesota Twins fan. I spent many days over the 8 years I was studying in St. Paul at the Metrodome watching the Twins play. When I started college, the Twins were one of the worst teams in Major League Baseball. Locals regularly referred to them as the Twinkies instead of the Twins. 1987 was the year that I graduated from college and started my graduate studies at St. Paul Seminary. It was also the year that the Twins won the World Series for the first time in their history. They would win the World Series one more time in 1991, the year of my ordination to the priesthood.

I've been watching the World Series this year with great interest. I'm not a fan of either team. The Twins did make the first round of playoffs but they were eliminated by the New York Yankees. It has just been a very fun and interesting series to watch. As I write this the Huston Astros are up 3 games to 2 over the Los Angeles Dodgers. By the time you read this, the series will be over.

One of the things that I love about baseball is the team concept. Often a player is called upon to 'sacrifice' while they are up to bat. They will give up their at bat to lay down a bunt to move another player into a better scoring position. They are asked not to be concerned about themselves but about the team.

Jesus challenges us in the Gospel this weekend, "Whoever exalts himself will be humbled; but whoever humbles himself will be exalted." It is good to ask ourselves when it comes to our faith, am I humbling myself or trying to exalt myself?

One Spirit, One Vision, One Community Campaign News: (Please see the second page following)

Archbishop's Annual Appeal: I ask that you prayerfully consider a gift to this year's annual appeal. I've made my gift and invite you to do the same. The Archdiocesan goal this year is $3,600,000 and our parish goal this year is $35,724.46. To date we have donations and pledges of $23,265.04 or 65%. Thank you to all who have already donated!

Discussions with the Pastor: You are invited to come and visit with an idea, concern, question, or if you would just like to talk. Feel free to come alone or with others. This week I will be available in the Multipurpose Room/Library just off the Narthex of the Church on Tuesday, November 7 from 4:30 to 5:30 pm; Thursday, November 9 from 4:30 to 5:30 pm; and Saturday, November 11 from 3:00 to 4:00 pm.

On the Cover

How is God calling you? That is the question Colleen Ciciulla asks in her article on the second page following.

Discerning God's will can be a challenge, but it is something we are all called to do. Maybe something in the pages of this bulletin will spark an idea of what that might be for you. Here at St. Pius we have opportunities for people to step up in many ways, perhaps as an RE catechist, or an usher, or maybe something else entirely. Big or small, all of our combined efforts to respond to God's call are what makes St. Pius X Church the great place that it is!

Wills and Trusts Seminar

If you do not have a will or need to update your current one, there is still space available for the free seminar on wills and trusts. The event will take place at St. Leo's Church on Tuesday, November 7, starting at noon. To attend, please RSVP by noon Monday. Call the school office at 402-551-6667

Younkers Community Days

Younkers Community Days are coming up on Wednesday, November 9 to Saturday, November 12. St. Pius X / St. Leo School is selling coupon booklets for this event. For $5, you will receive:

Podcasts of Homilies! Did something said at a homily strike a chord? Do you ever wish that you could remember that story that was told at a weekend mass? Was there a message that you would like to share with someone from the weekend homily? Recordings of all the homilies are posted weekly on the website. Right under 'Publications' you can also find the most current bulletin, e-news, parish handbook, and videos of recent adult formation presentations.

Heart & Sole: Congratulations to winners of weekly $5 gift card incentives for our Heart & Sole physical activity program:

Week 1 (Target)—Bonnie Morong, Jim Waldron, Rosie Volkmer

Week 2 (The Bookworm)—Cathy Pakiz, Chris Chattin, Vance Valerio

Week 3 (Bakers)—Juli Johnson, Michaela Voor Vart, Bonnie Krohn. Keep up the good work! And remember to record your activity minutes when you receive your weekly email from CHI.

Staley's Chicken Dinner: Remember that this year's next Staley's Chicken Dinner is Friday, November 17th. We still need Pius Pie makers for the chicken dinner. Contact Karen Walag 402 390-2717 or kwalag@q.com and any crafters with items contact Nancy Lobsinger nlobsing@cox.net.

We again are sponsoring the "Tie Blanket" project this holiday season. Since the project's inception in 2010, 760 fleece blankets have been assembled and provided to families in need. These fun, cozy blankets are a true gift, very often providing real physical warmth to children and adults who struggle with basic heating needs during the cold winter months. Please prayerfully consider joining in this wonderful program. No-Sew Tie Blanket instruction can be found in the narthex in the kiosk. We will collect the blankets through Sunday, December 9th. Campaign Corner

One Spirit, One Vision, One Community

One Spirit, One Vision, One Community Campaign News from Fr. Mike: Our pledge total continues to rise for the One Spirit, One Vision, One Community capital campaign. The total amount pledged is currently more than $2.3 million. It's nice to see the total continue to increase but it is even more gratifying to see how many parish and school families have shown their support for the campaign by making a pledge or a gift. More than 500 families from St. Leo the Great Parish and St. Pius X Parish have already participated in the campaign.

If you have not made a pledge to the campaign yet, I urge you to do so soon.

If a volunteer has been trying to reach you, please call them back and set up a time to meet with them. Their goal is to answer your questions and help you get your pledge submitted. If you received a pledge card in the mail, please complete it and return it to the parish as soon as possible. If you prefer, you can stop by the school office and complete your pledge there. We need the participation of every family in order for the campaign to be successful and we would like to have every family be a part of its success.

We are getting closer to our goal. Currently for our parish we have pledges of $619,700 to our goal of $1,030,000 (60%) and pledges to the school of $1,022,125 to our goal of $2,800,000 (37%).

Religious Formation Ministry

Colleen Ciciulla, Director

Answer the Call, Not the Need

A foster mother for a 16 year-old girl told the audience at a foster parent celebration that, "If this were a Humane Society event, everyone would go home with a puppy." Her point was that everyone would leave the event feeling good about foster parenting, but that doesn't mean everyone is called to be a foster parent. She went on to tell the audience to "answer the call, not the need."

We are faced with constant needs in our city (and state and world). If we respond to every need, we will be broke, burned out, and resentful. However, if we ask God to guide us and if we listen to God's call to service, then whatever we give will be multiplied – for the benefit of those we serve and for ourselves.

In today's gospel, Jesus warns us against those who tie up heavy burdens for others to carry. If we practice what we preach, our invitation for others to join us on the journey is not only sincere, but an act of love. The mystery of love is that the more love we give away, the more we get in return and the more we have to give!

If you hear God calling you to share your faith with children, please contact me. The needs in our Religious Education are great, but only for those who are called!

Planning for death is as natural as planning for life. As stated in 1Timothy 5:8, "... if anyone does not take care of his own, and especially his household, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever." Having a will is good stewardship. Take care of your family first! Then please prayerfully consider remembering our School and/or Parish's Endowment Funds in your will or estate planning. Please contact Bob Nowaczyk, SPSL's Development Coordinator at 402-551-6667 for more information.

Liturgy

Dr. Anne McGuire, Director

New Ushers are needed. In particular, there is a need for a head usher at each weekend Mass time, as well as those who can assist when present at each Mass. Contact Anne McGuire or Fr. Mike

The Communion of Saints, in which we profess belief when we recite the Apostles Creed, is not so much about those recognized saints in heaven, but the community of the baptized faithful, who form one body of holiness in heaven and on earth.

In the Catechism of the Catholic Church, there are two closely linked meanings of this phrase: communion in holy things, and communion among holy persons. In November we celebrate the Communion of Saints, beginning with All Saints Day and All Souls Day, culminating in the feast of Jesus Christ, King of the Universe.

To celebrate this Communion, we invite anyone who wants, to please bring a picture of a deceased loved one. It will be added to the display of saints in the narthex. In addition, there will be a memorial book in which you are encouraged to write the names of the deceased, who will be remembered at each Mass from November 2, All Souls Day, through November 26, the feast of Christ the King.
