From your Pastor's Desk

Fr. Mike Eckley

In Today's First Reading from the Book of Deuteronomy, the people are about to pass into the Promised Land. Moses is not going to pass over with them. He does assure them that God will continue to be with them and that God will continue to instruct them in the way that He desires them to live. Moses tells them, "A prophet like me will the LORD, your God, raise up for you from among your own kin; to him you shall listen." Later in the reading we hear that Moses is just repeating a promise that God had made years ago to His People at Mount Horeb in the desert. The people were fearful of hearing the actual voice of God and pleaded that the Lord speak to His People in another manner.

The promise that the Lord made and that Moses reaffirmed is not just for Israel in Ancient Times. We know that Jesus, The Word, came and continued to speak to us and lead us to the Father. Jesus was different than prophets of old. He spoke with His own authority as we hear in the Gospel today. He didn't need to rely on the Scripture or any other authority. The people in the Gospel today "were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes."

Today the Lord continues to speak to us. He does so through His Word which we hear proclaimed today. He also does so by the voice of those who cry out for peace and justice like the prophets of old. Who are these prophets? We can all point to some who have lived in recent years who truly spoke with a prophet voice. There was St. Theresa of Calcutta who was an advocate for the poor and forgotten. St. John XXIII called the Church to renewal during his time as pope. St. John Paul II called us to a New Evangelization and reminded both young and old to be 'Be Not Afraid' in their witness to the Gospel. St. Katherine Drexel's life was dedicated to education of and protecting the dignity of Native American and African American people here in our country.

Voices are still needed. Renewal, protection of the dignity of our brothers and sisters, evangelization and advocates of the poor are still needed. The Lord has not gone silent. In the Psalm today we prayed, "If today you hear His voice, harden not your hearts." The Lord continues to speak to us and call us to be His voice to the world. The question for us is are we willing to take up His Word and proclaim it or will we let our hearts harden to His Word?

An Invitations: We have been hosting Theology Matters sponsored by the Theology Department of Creighton University the last couple years. We have had theologians and experts come in and discuss pertinent topics from a Catholic Perspective. On Monday, January 29th, I will be presenting on accompanying those who are divorced and remarried outside the Church. Many of us know of family members and friends who feel disconnected from the Church because of being in non-Sacramental Marriages. Please come and learn about the Holy Father's challenge and invitation to us and please invite those family, friends and neighbors who think would benefit from the evening.

Discussions with the Pastor: You are invited to come and visit with an idea, concern, question, or if you would just like to talk. Feel free to come alone or with others. This week I will be available in the Multipurpose Room/Library just off the Narthex of the Church on Tuesday, January 30th, 6:00 to 7:00 pm; Thursday, February 1st, 4:00 to 5:00 pm and Saturday, February 3rd, 3:00 to 4:00 pm.

On the Cover

Statistics show that a simple invitation is the most effective way that people feel welcomed to return to the Church. During this year of invitation, postcards will be available in the narthex for you to use to invite others to different events. We need to make the first move. More information on additional ways to be invitational can be found on the website.

Women's Organization News

Learn how the Christian community can faithfully accompany those who have experienced the pain of divorce and estrangement from the Church. On Monday, January 29, Fr. Mike Eckley will offer a pastoral look at divorce. Using Amoris Laetitia, the document that grew out of the discussions at the Synod on the Family, Fr. Mike will talk about "accompaniment" or meeting people where they are and recognizing the sacredness of that place.

Date: Monday, January 29

Time: 7:00 pm

Location: St. Pius X Parish Center

Topic: Amoris Laetitia: Accompanying the Divorced & Remarried

For Seniors Age 65 and Above

There is a move to merge the St. Pius X Pioneers and the St. Leo's Keenagers into one dynamic and active group. In the past, we jointly organized and presented a Christmas party, a St. Patrick's Day party, and several bus tours.

There are also a number of other possibilities:

1. A new name for the joint venture
2. Possible other activities, such as pot lucks, movies with lunch or dinner, day trips to fun destinations, etc.

3. A planning calendar for the year. We would love to have as many seniors as possible involved and active. This would not be a hard and fast commitment. Anyone can join into as many activities as they would like.

This is an excellent opportunity to meet new people with similar interests and become more active.

Join us at St. Leo's parish center on February 1 at 2:00 pm to give your opinions and suggestions.

St. Pius X/St. Leo School

Cory Sepich, Principal

Hello from St. Pius X / St. Leo School, I am happy to say that we almost a full week of school this week. As many know, the weather over the past few weeks has caused some days where we had to close school. We are hoping that the weather starts to improve and we can get the students and staff back into the routine of full weeks and no random days off during the week. We here in the St. Pius X / St. Leo community are definitely asking St. Medard of Noyon, our Patron Saint of good weather and against bad weather. St. Medard of Noyon, pray for us.

We are excited for this upcoming week because its Catholic School's Week! You probably even heard some of our students and staff speak about our school community this Sunday after our masses. We have lots of fun events this week, including Marian High School band, choir and orchestra performances, our annual Catholic School's Week Family Masses at St. Leo's on Wednesday and our 8th grade

All Catholic Schools Mass on Thursday at St. Cecilia Cathedral. Another fun event this week, will be our Drama Club performance of "You're A Good Man Charlie Brown" on Friday, February 2 at 8:45 am, 10:30 am or 7:00 pm and Saturday, February 3 at 7:00 pm. All are welcome and we hope to see you there!

It was so great to see many of you at our Pre-Kindergarten Roundup event yesterday (Saturday, January 27th). The little ones are so excited for school. However, if you did miss the Pre-Kindergarten Roundup, that is alright as you can still register your 3 or 4 year olds for the 2018-19 school year! We offer pre-kindergarten for 3 and 4 year olds with the 4 year olds having an option for a full-day program as well as a full-day kindergarten program for your very young ones. We are a community of people who care about each other and work constantly to make our school a highly regarded place of learning. Our 3, 4 and 5-year-old classrooms focus on learning with hands-on and fun activities. We also offer flexible seating options that provide these young learners 'wiggle' time to be engaged during instruction and growing academically and spiritually.

If you know of any neighbors or friends that might be interested in our school, please invite them to attend the upcoming Kindergarten Roundup for their younger children or call the school office at 402-551-6667 if they have children for grades 1-8 to set up a time to come and visit.

St. Pius X Action Figures

Jesus was a man of action – teaching, preaching, casting out demons, feeding thousands, healing the sick – and those who sought him would not let him rest. He had to withdraw and often sought time in deserted places where he could pray and renew himself.

The men of St. Pius X parish are also men of action. They build, set up, tear down, cook, clean, haul, shovel, climb, referee, and do a million other things that keep the facility and the parish functioning. Their (your!) faith in action serves as an excellent role model for others.

Now it's time to rest and renew yourself! On Saturday morning, February 3, bring your sons, fathers, neighbors, and co-workers to join Fr.

Jeffrey Lorig at a men's morning of prayer and reflection. He will focus on the men of Galilee asking Jesus, "Lord, teach us to pray."

The men of Galilee were ordinary men called by Jesus to live extraordinary lives. That call was strengthened and sharpened by spending time with him on a daily basis. We do this, too, by spending time with Jesus in prayer. When we spend time with Jesus, we, like the ordinary men of Galilee, became extraordinary men of God called and sent to transform the world.
