FAMILY FAITH JOURNEY

How might you describe your family's current or your relationship to God/the Catholic Faith? Please circle or highlight the most accurate.

1. I am not Catholic and am not considering it an option. or Was raised Catholic but don't practice
2. I am not a practicing Catholic but like to consider myself open minded
3. I am just beginning to (re)connect with the Church or become involved in parish life.
4. I am open to learning more about the Catholic faith but am still exploring what I believe.
5. I have begun to trust the Church and believe faith is important, though I still have many questions.
6. My curiosity about God and the Catholic faith has grown, and I want to understand it better.
7. I recognize that following Christ is an important decision and am becoming more open to what that means.
8. I am actively seeking a deeper relationship with Jesus and trying to grow in my faith.
9. I am beginning to put my faith into practice and live it more intentionally.

PARENT COMMITMENT

By requesting Baptism for our child, we recognize that Baptism begins a lifelong relationship with Christ and His Church. We accept our responsibility as parents to nurture our child's faith through prayer, participation in the Church, and the example of Christian living.
