Dear Parishioners:

Greetings of peace and joy!

I had never envisioned as a young child, growing up in rural America, that I would be a priest, or even serve a parish in Omaha, NE. With our nation celebrating 250 years, there is still a lot of wonder and awe, when learning more of the history, influential people, and experiences which impacted their lives. Many had to wonder what their future would be like and how would America offer them opportunities to flourish along with the Church. One spiritual writer claims that wonder encourages us to stand humbly before the unfathomable mysteries of life, and trust that in them, we discover God.

As your pastor, I am humbled and grateful for so many people, who commit, serve and share in the works of Christ. Grasping only a few things, I wonder if you ever stop to think about how many St. Pius X parishioners share, help and serve others in the name of Christ, through the various ministries, organizations and dedicated volunteers. Our community is immensely blessed to be founded on Christian values promoting faith, education, human dignity, social justice, generosity and outreach to the poor.

This new directory is a valuable tool to connect with other parishioners, ministries and groups who share a common goal—to welcome and serve with the compassion and mercy of Christ.

Each day there are ample opportunities for grace, talents to be discovered and shared, and growth in our faith community, as we strive to live the gospel values. Together, may we never stop learning to follow Christ and imitate his ways of care and encouragement, as we nurture the gift of faith in one another.

We pray that our patron, St. Pius X, Mary and all the saints will offer us inspiration, hope, courage, and protection.

In Christ,

Rev. Mark Tomaszewicz
Pastor

Our Mission

We are St. Pius X Parish, grateful to our founders for a tradition of sacrifice, hard work and simplicity, proud of our economic, cultural and age diversity. As a Catholic community, we share our gifts and resources to live the Gospel of Jesus in a spirit of joy. We commit to Spirit-filled worship and prayer and excellence in education for all. We strive to be a welcoming community, to work for justice and to provide caring service for one another and the world.

Our Patron, St. Pius X

Pope Pius X was born on June 2, 1835, died August 20, 1914, and was canonized on May 29, 1954. St. Pius is perhaps best remembered for his encouragement of the frequent reception of Holy Communion, especially by children. The aim of his papacy became his motto: To restore all things in Christ.

The second of 10 children in a poor Italian family, Joseph Sarto became Pius X at age 68, and was one of the 20th century's greatest popes.

Ever mindful of his humble origin, he stated, "I was born poor, I lived poor, I will die poor." He was embarrassed by some of the pomp of the papal court. "Look how they have dressed me up," he said in tears to an old friend. To another, "It is a penance to be forced to accept all these practices. They lead me around surrounded by soldiers, like Jesus when he was seized in Gethsemani."

Interested in politics, he encouraged Italian Catholics to become more politically involved. One of his first papal acts was to end the supposed right of governments to interfere by veto in papal elections—a practice that reduced the freedom of the 1903 conclave which had elected him.

In 1905, when France renounced its agreement with the Holy See and threatened confiscation of Church property if governmental control of Church affairs were not granted, Pius X courageously rejected the demand.

While he did not author a famous social encyclical as his predecessor had done, he denounced the ill treatment of indigenous peoples of the plantations of Peru, sent a relief commission to Messina after an earthquake and sheltered refugees at his own expense.

On the 11th anniversary of his election as pope, Europe was plunged into World War I. Pius had foreseen it, but it killed him. "This is the last affliction the Lord will visit on me. I would gladly give my life to save my poor children from this ghastly scourge." He died a few weeks after the war began and was canonized in 1954. His feast day is August 21.

“Restore All Things in Christ” A Place to Call Home

Eternal Father, we are St. Pius X Parish.

We have gathered together to be
Your visible light in this world.

We look to Your Great Commission and pray for the grace to be a parish that is so on-fire that we draw people to You.

We are blessed to be a diverse community
ready to share our gifts and resources,
according to the Gospel, with a spirit of true joy.
Bless us as we commit to Spirit-filled worship, prayer, and education.

Father, You call us to be a welcoming community, to work for justice, and to provide caring service for one another, and the world.
Keep us faithful to our mission.

Guide us as we seek the values that will bring us lasting joy, raise up this world in Your honor, and restore all things in Christ.

Almighty God, we ask this through the working of the Holy Spirit,
the intercession of the Virgin Mary, and St. Pius X.
May we respond to Your call as our founders did,
with sacrifice, hard work and simplicity.

Amen

Welcome

We extend a special welcome to all who are single, married, divorced, gay, filthy rich, dirt poor; y no habla Ingles. We extend a special welcome to those who are crying newborns, skinny as a rail, or could afford to lose a few pounds.

We welcome you if you can sing or even if you can hardly carry a note in a bucket.

You're welcome here if you're "just browsing," just woke up, or just got out of jail. We don't care if you're more Catholic than the Pope, haven't been in church since little Joey's baptism, or have never been in a church ever.

We extend a special welcome to those who are over 60 but have not grown up yet, and to teenagers who are growing up too fast. We welcome single parents, gay parents, all parents, starving artists, tree-huggers, latté-sippers, vegetarians, junk-food eaters. We welcome those who are in recovery or still addicted. We welcome those who are having problems or are down in the dumps, and those who don't like "organized religion" (we've been there, too).

If you blew all your offering money before you arrived, you're welcome here. We welcome those who think the earth is flat, who work too hard, who don't work, can't spell, or who are here because grandma is in town and she wanted you to go to church with her. We welcome those children who run down the aisle, those who need an arm to lean on, those who see and hear with assistance, and those who don't miss a word or note or gesture.

We welcome those who are inked, pierced, or both. We offer a special welcome to those who could use a prayer right now, had religion shoved down their throat as a kid or got lost in traffic and wound up here by mistake. We welcome tourists, seekers and doubters, bleeding hearts . . . and you!

The History of Our Parish

St. Pius X Parish officially began May 8, 1954, when the Chancellor of the Omaha Archdiocese wrote the Rev. George Kempker in Worthington, Ohio. In effect the letter said: We're building a new parish; we want you to be the "architect." You'll start with two blocks of property at 69th & Blondo (a cornfield), 500 families and our prayers. On May 29th, the canonization date of St. Pius X, our parish was erected.

The energy of Fr. Kempker, an ex-marine chaplain, was contagious. Ground breaking for our house of worship - a metal structure called a "Behlen" building - began September 20th. Shortly before Christmas, Archbishop Bergan dedicated St. Pius X Church. Many called it a "ninety day wonder."

Construction on a 19-room school building began August 1, 1955. It was completed in time for the 1956 fall term, with an enrollment of 465 students and a staff of four Servants of Mary Sisters, including the Principal, Sr. Mary Brigetta, and seven lay teachers.

Scaffolding, work crews, bricks and mortar were common sights for parishioners during the next several years. The parish grew, and by 1965, St. Pius X School was the largest in the Midwest, with an enrollment of 1,565. Fr. Kempker, who suffered a stroke, retired in the spring of 1968.

In June of 1968, Fr. Charles Brodersen was named pastor. "Fr. B" quickly caught the Pius Spirit. In keeping with Vatican II, he established the Parish Council and other committees, thus involving more laity (men and women) in the planning and growth of the parish. During the Brodersen years, the "ninety day wonder" was remodeled, given a brick façade and air-conditioned. In June of 1977, Fr. Brodersen left St. Pius for St. Stanislaus Parish.

Fr. Thomas O'Brien, who had served as first assistant pastor to the parish, came back as pastor that summer. He felt right at home. The "Pius Spirit" was still alive and flourishing. In the summer of 1978, St. Pius helped establish a neighboring parish, St. Leo, to help meet the needs of the rapidly increasing number of families in the area. St. Pius X School was renamed St. Pius X/St. Leo and a partnership was born.

Under Fr. O'Brien's leadership, the laity continued to blossom and nurture the parish. People were invited to use their gifts and many new programs began, creating the need for a gathering place to work on ministries together. In 1986, the Parish Center was built and blessed.

“A Tradition of Sacrifice, Hard Work and Simplicity...”

In June of 1996, Fr. O'Brien left St. Pius X for St. Vincent de Paul Parish. In his place, St. Pius X was blessed to have yet another son returning home. Fr. Lloyd Gnirk had been a resident at St. Pius X in 1982. He, too, quickly caught the “Pius Spirit.” During Fr. Gnirk's 12 years of leadership, the parish and school saw many additions and improvements. In the summer of 2001, the north school building was updated and given a new façade. In the summer of 2002 a four-classroom addition for kindergartners was completed, the south school building was given a new façade and a new garage for the priests was built. The new Administration wing for the school was completed and dedicated in 2006. In June 2008, Fr. Gnirk moved to St. John's in Valley, NE.

Fr. John L. Pietramale was appointed as the parish's 5th pastor in June 2008 and served for 3 years until becoming pastor of Our Lady of Lourdes Parish in Omaha. In his time here at St. Pius, Fr. Pietramale grew St. Pius's savings and endowment, and with the help of many in the parish, put the parish on a stable financial footing. This stability enabled the parish to move forward with the renovation of the parish worship space.

Fr. Mike Eckley, was named the 6th pastor of St. Pius X in June 2011. Fr. Mike was formally installed as pastor on July 31, 2011 by Archbishop George Lucas at an evening prayer service that also included the procession of the Eucharist out of the church into the Parish Center. This was the official beginning of the church renovation, which preserved the original mahogany paneling, the stained glass windows, the marble altar and ambo. Archbishop George Lucas blessed the renovated church in a dedication Mass on June 3rd, 2012. Fr. Mike Eckley remained pastor until July 1, 2018.

Fr. Joe Wray, previously pastor at St. Joseph in Wisner and Holy Cross in Beemer was appointed as the 7th Pastor of St. Pius X. Fr. Joe along with the expertise of lay parishioners led the parish and school safely through the dark days of the COVID pandemic. We faced the challenges by offering remote education, recorded liturgies and physically distant sacraments.

In 2022, through the Archdiocese's Journey of Faith process, St. Pius X Parish came full circle when the three parishes of St. Bernard's, St. Pius X (which was created from St. Bernard's) and St. Leo the Great (which was created from St. Pius X) were designated as a 'Family of Parishes'. Our future as a 'family of parishes' will help us to better bring the light of Christ to this part of Omaha and the world.

In June of 2024, Fr. Mark Tomasiewicz left a rural family of parishes near Albion, Nebraska, and was appointed as the 8th pastor of St. Pius X parish.

Stewardship

What is Stewardship of Time, Talent and Treasure?

It is the wise and responsible use of the special gifts God has entrusted to each of us. It is believing that God has created each one of us with unique abilities and attributes which make us who we are. Many times in scripture we are reminded to be generous with our time, talent and treasure. We are called to take care of others, to share what we have, and to return a portion of our gifts to God. We are reminded do this with purity of intention and according to our means.

Why Is This Important?

Our lives have real meaning only when we use our gifts in accordance with God's will. Nurturing stewardship helps us grow in our relationship with God.

How Can I Be a Good Steward of My Time, Talents and Treasure?

Guided by prayer, each Catholic makes a decision to live out the Christian life as a good steward. This decision is an intentional act to thank God for all of His blessings, in short, to put God at the center of life. We are provided with many opportunities each day to be good stewards. We just need to be aware of the choices we make and the significance of our decisions.

How can I share my time, talent and treasure at St. Pius X?

In this handbook you will find descriptions of the varied opportunities available at St. Pius X.

Bereavement

Grief is a life-changing experience. There is no one right way to grieve. As Christians, we celebrate and give thanks for the promise of eternal life, and we acknowledge grief as a Christian response in the face of loss. At St. Pius X, we seek to be a spiritual home and provide a place of support, prayer, resources and encouragement in the midst of loss and sadness. We offer a variety of ministries to journey alongside our bereaved parishioners in the days, months and years following the death of a loved one.

The luncheon is a sharing time for family and friends - a time to ease the grieving for those who have just buried a loved one. Families are most appreciative of this service. Lunch is served in the Parish Center by parish volunteers. We are always ready to welcome anyone (men, women, young adults, etc.) who would be able to help in any number of ways.

Catholic Social Teaching Ministry

The CST Ministry Team offers education on the 7 Principles of Catholic Social Teaching, opportunities for parishioner discussion and invitations to action responses throughout the year. The CST Team is the umbrella ministry (organization) for a number of initiatives including Care for Creation, Faithful Citizenship, Neighborhood Stability, Racial Justice, Refugee Support and works with other leaders to organize Theology Matters, and Omaha Together One Community.

The CST Team made racial justice education a priority in 2020, listening to Pope Francis' call to eradicate deep inequities in systems, and the US Bishop's concern that public safety must apply to all. The CST team commits to education, awareness, and solidarity through book readings, speakers, and working with other congregations to stand against all racism when these are scheduled.

Theology Matters

CST works with St. Pius X Adult faith formation and Creighton University to present theological reflections and discussion several times a year on many aspects of Catholic teaching.

Omaha Together One Community

OTOC has been a St. Pius X Social Justice ministry since 1993. As a founding member, St. Pius parishioners work with member congregations of many denominations, and based on our shared faith values, we act together to affect social justice issues on neighborhood, city, state and federal levels, by conducting parish meetings to surface issues of concern both public and parish centered. OTOC leaders commit to leadership development, and to engage in issues research that is then shared with elected officials with solutions negotiated in respectful public conversation.

Lector

The lector's gift and ministry is to proclaim the Word of God clearly, with reverence, energy, and joy, to the assembled people of God. Each lector prepares thoroughly, studies assigned scripture passages, and engages with the assembly as he or she proclaims a word that heals and comforts and consoles; that challenges and confronts; that feeds the hungers and longings of the community's hearts for truth. Training is provided throughout the year at the parish.

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (EMHC)

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (EMHC) offer holy food to holy people, highlighting that we are one bread, one body. With reverence, each EMHC gives witness to friends, family, strangers, and visitors that we are all one community bound together with dignity by the one bread and one cup. EMHCs set up and clean up, but their primary ministry is serving the assembly in the sacrament of unity, Holy Communion. Training is provided throughout the year at the parish.

Eucharistic Ministry to the homebound, hospitalized, or to those living in residential institutions is an extension of this liturgical ministry. EMHCs may choose to exercise both manners of serving God's people. A separate training is provided for those who want to take the Body of Christ to the sick and homebound.

Sacristan

Sacristans prepare and set up for liturgies, both daily and those on the weekend. Preparing for a liturgy involves setting out vessels, hosts, purificators, lectionary and missal, and any extras needed for a specific liturgy. In addition to making sure lights are on and the space is ready, the sacristan checks with the presider for any instructions for special occasions.

Ministers of Hospitality: Greeters and Ushers

Greeters and ushers welcome everyone, personally assist individuals who have physical needs, are present to help with the flow of communion, know where to direct those who are looking for a space to sit, to pray, and even to use other facilities in the building. Greeters are the first face of St. Pius X parish, and often the last to wish a happy and blessed week as worshippers leave. Their ministry takes place primarily in the narthex or gathering space. Ushers monitor the worship space itself. They also take up the collection, see to the physical needs of the assembly, and may be called on to assist in emergency situations. Greeters and ushers have overlapping ministries, sometimes even sharing their ministries.

Servers

Servers are important ministers in the celebration of the Mass, assisting at the altar, and participating in processions with cross, candles, and incense. Servers know the order of the Mass well, and help everything flow smoothly from lighting candles to entrance through the Liturgy of the Word, Communion, and the recessional. Youth servers, beginning in fourth grade, assist at weekend liturgies, while adult servers are needed for daily and funeral liturgies. Training is provided throughout the year as needed.

Ministers of Music

Musicians, whether instrumental or vocal, provide leadership to the entire assembly, marking the liturgy musically as recommended by the Church. In addition, musicians build on the assembly's song with harmonies, instrumentation, and dignified music. Music enhances the celebration, and many musicians of all ages and talents are needed to accomplish a "musical liturgy."

Cantors and choirs, pianists and guitarists, even composers – are encouraged to participate in this vital liturgical ministry.
