Catechetical Sunday, Sept. 20 We celebrate Religious Education catechists, Religion teachers, Confirmation sponsors, OCIA Sponsors, and Discipleship Group facilitators, and all those who have formally handed on the faith to us. Be sure to lift them up in prayer or thank them if you see them. This year we will be looking at the sacraments with the children and the Mass with their parents. We will be looking at them specifically with an eye to their covenantal context, which to say how they are necessary acts of relationship with God which heal us and support us about our covenant calling to follow Christ, to know, to love, and serve Him.

Faithful Citizenship, Sunday, September 20, 2-4 PM, First United Methodist Church, 69th & Cass, As a founding and current member of Omaha Together One Community (OTOC), St. Pius X will co-sponsor a Candidate Accountability Session. Candidates for Senate, House of Representatives, Governor and candidates for several Nebraska Unicameral districts have been invited. Aspects of issues regarding Medical Debt Relief and Just Treatment of Immigrants have been researched by OTOC teams and will be presented to candidates for their support and response. St. Pius X parishioners will be seated together. Please contact roselynvolkmer@gmail.com for instructions to pre-register and/or for questions.
